- ★ Experience the history of Canada through sight and sound at Founder's Hall.
- ★ Discover the amazing accomplishments of Alexander Graham Bell during a visit to his museum in Nova Scotia.

Day 1: Thursday, August 20, 2009

Halifax, Nova Scotia - Tour Begins

This tour of Canada's Atlantic Coast is a veritable parade of rugged, untouched beauty. With Collette as your guide, you'll discover the natural and cultural treasures of Nova Scotia, New Brunswick and Prince Edward Island. Begin your exploration in Nova Scotia's capital city, Halifax.

Day 2: Friday, August 21, 2009

Halifax - Peggy's Cove - Halifax

Start the day with a visit to one of the most picturesque spots in all of Nova Scotia...beautiful Peggy's Cove. With a weathered lighthouse overlooking the cobalt sea, it is the quintessential Nova Scotia scene. Then return to Halifax's charming downtown where you'll have free time for lunch before embarking on a scenic tour of the city highlighting the waterfront, Public Gardens, Spring Garden Road, and the famous Citadel. Along the way you will also visit the Titanic gravesite, where you will learn about the important role Halifax played in rescuing the survivors of this tragic event. Today breakfast and dinner will be included.

Day 3: Saturday, August 22, 2009

Halifax - Moncton, New Brunswick

Travel to New Brunswick this morning and take in the sights at historic Fort Beausejour. Later today, indulge your senses during a visit to the Olivier Soapery. At this unique museum, you will learn about the history of soap making and even try your hand at this traditional craft! Today breakfast will be included.

Day 4: Sunday, August 23, 2009

Moncton

This morning, discover the disappearing art of hand spinning at the London Wul Farm. From caring for the animals to mixing the perfect shade of dye, everything at London Wul is done with loving attention. Observe the process from washing to spinning and marvel at the colorful creations in the museum's gallery and boutique. Later, travel to the sea-sprayed shoreline to observe the amazing Hopewell Rocks. A New Brunswick icon, these flowerpot-shaped rocks tower four-stories high at low tide and disappear into tiny islands when the tide is high. Then it's on to the charming fishing village of Shediac, known as the "Lobster Capital of the World." ★Here you join local fishermen aboard their boat and learn how to catch, cook and crack your very own lobster. Then enjoy the fruit of your labor at a delicious lobster dinner!★ Today breakfast and dinner will be included.

Day 5: Monday, August 24, 2009

Moncton - Charlottetown, Prince Edward Island

Today you leave New Brunswick behind and cross the Confederation Bridge to the "island cradled in the waves." Next, arrive in charming Charlottetown, your home for the next two evenings. Today breakfast will be included.

Day 6: Tuesday, August 25, 2009

Charlottetown

The rolling landscapes of Prince Edward Island (PEI) were the backdrop of the acclaimed novel, "Anne of Green Gables." Today you will visit the Anne of Green Gables Museum, the house in which Lucy Maud Montgomery lived and upon which she based her book. During your visit, you will meet with a local potato farmer and learn about the potato industry on PEI first hand as you help him with his crop. Then you head to the stunning beaches of Cavendish National Park and visit a wharf in Rustico, celebrated for its picturesque fishing boats and lobster traps. Tonight, visit Founders' Hall, Canada's Birthplace Pavilion. At this interesting heritage attraction, you will enter "The Time Travel Tunnel" to 1864 and learn about the origins of our neighbor to the north. Today breakfast and dinner will be included.

Day 7: Wednesday, August 26, 2009
Charlottetown - Baddeck, Nova Scotia

A morning ferry ride takes you back to beautiful Nova Scotia. From here you'll cross the Canso Causeway onto Cape Breton Island. Enjoy a scenic drive along the pristine shores of Bras d'Or Lakes, Canada's only inland sea. Later, you will be amazed by the variety of inventions at the Alexander Graham Bell Museum in Baddeck, where the brilliant inventor made his home. Today breakfast and dinner will be included.

Day 8: Thursday, August 27, 2009
Baddeck - Cabot Trail - Baddeck

You are in for a treat this morning as you travel along the famous Cabot Trail, one of the most scenic drives on the Atlantic coast. You are sure to fall in love with its mountainous beauty, rugged terrain, and spectacular ocean views. Along the way, make a stop at the famed St. Peter's Church in Cheticamp. Enjoy a visit to the Acadian Museum where you will learn how to make a hooked rug. Other highlights include stops at several fishing communities along the coast including Neil's Harbour and Ingonish. With so much scenery to take in, you'll definitely want to have your camera ready! Today breakfast will be included.

Day 9: Friday, August 28, 2009
Baddeck - Halifax

Return to Halifax and enjoy some time at leisure to explore the city. Walk along the waterfront, indulge in some delicious fresh seafood, or simply enjoy the relaxed atmosphere of this charming Canadian seaport. This evening, join your fellow travelers for a wonderful farewell dinner on the Halifax harbor to cap off a memorable trip. Today breakfast and dinner will be included.

Day 10: Saturday, August 29, 2009
Halifax - Tour Ends

Return home today with warm memories of the people, culture, and gorgeous scenery of Canada's Atlantic Coast. Today breakfast will be included.

Experience It! _____ Shediac / Lobster Tales

Pull up the lobster traps and get ready for a dining experience unlike any other! Shediac, New Brunswick prides itself on being the "Lobster Capital of the World" and you'll soon discover why. Lobster Tales not only takes you on a cruise of beautiful Shediac Bay, but experienced lobstermen show you the ropes of the lobster fishery. Haul in real traps and observe the best way to crack these crustaceans. Learn the proper way to cook this coastal delicacy. Lobster Tales gives you up-close insight into the fishing industry so integral to the economy and culture of the Maritimes. Finally, enjoy your fresh lobster dinner and relish in true Acadian hospitality aboard Lobster Tales 53' boat, The Ambassador.
